"Tinclad" Gunboats Ran Into a Nest of Insurgents Concealed in the Brush.

Americans Opened With Their Rapid-Fire Guns, Filling the Jungle With a Hail of Shot-I wenty Natives Killed and Several Wounded Before Retreating.

MANILA, May 15 .- The "tinclad" gunboats Laguna de Bay and Cavadonga and a launch under Capt. Grant, ran into a nest of insurgents concealed in the brush and on both sides of the Rio Grande river, three miles above Calumpit, Saturday afternoon, and were received with heavy volleys at short range. A sergeant belonging to the Utah battery was killed and one private was wounded.

Opening with their rapid-fire guns, the Americans killed 20 natives and wounded several others, filling the jungle with a hail of shot for half an hour until the enemy fled.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The following dispatch from Maj. Gen. Otis, giving the status of the military situation as it now exists in the operations against the insurgents, was received at the war department Sunday:

"MANILA, May 14.-Adjutant General, Washington: Situation is as follows: Lawton, from Balinag, has tak-Ildefonso and San Miguel to north with slight loss and drivconsiderable force of enemy; gunboats and canoes accompany 1,500 men under Kobbe up Rio Grande river from Calumpit, depart 16th. Mac-Arthur remains at San Fernando, covering country. * * Yesterday messenger from Aguinaldo expressing wish to send commission to Manila for conference with United States commission to arrange terms of peace; directions given to pass body representative insurgents to Manila should it present itself. (Signed)

DEWEY'S HOMEWARD TRIP.

He Will Start in a Few Days and Will Sail Leisurely, Stopping at Mediterranean Ports for Rest.

MANILA, May 15.—Adm. Dewey will leave for the United States as soon, as he can arrange his business here and give full instructions for the management of the fleet to his successor. The United States cruiser Olympia, upon | which Adm. Dewey will make the voyage home, will sail a leisurely trip, stopping at Mediterranean ports for some time to give the admiral, the officers of the ship and the crew an opportunity for rest. Like all the Olympia's company, Adm. Dewey is much run down by his long stay in a tropical port without change and under the rigid conditions incident to a war footing.

All are delighted at the prospect of returning home. The officers have had little shore leave, and have been obliged always to be on shipboard by sundown. The crew have had still less leave, and show the effects of a year spent upon a hot ship under an enervating sun.

The Olympia will proceed from Manila to Hong Kong, where a fortnight will be spent in transforming the mud color which she was painted to white, having up to this time been unable to comply with the department's order to take on white paint. At Hong Kong the cruiser will be coaled and provisioned for her further journey.

Adm. Dewey expects to retain his position on the United States Philippine commission.

He Has Permission to Start for Hom Any Moment He Chooses.

New York Will Likely Be His Landing Place-The Great Admiral Will Be at Home in Time to Attend 4th of July Celebration.

Washington, May 13 .- "Send Olympia's mail to B. F. Stevens, No. 4 Trafalgar Square, London, Eng.," was the notice given out at the navy department Friday. This is the first formal indication that the famous flagship is coming home immediately.

Upon inquiry it was ascertained that Secretary Long has cabled Adm. Dewey permission to return at once to the United States. He has been at Manila until the Philippine commission completes its work. He is not even required to await the cessation of hostilities, but may start homeward at once. The notice posted at the navy department indicates that the Olympia will not remain long enough to receive the next outward mail. Mr. Stevens, referred to, is the navy department's agent at London to distribute all of the mail of the war ships in European waters, so he will see to it that the Olympia receives hers as soon as she passes the Suez canal.

It is estimated at the navy department that Dewey will reach the United States in time for a national demonstration on the 4th of July next. The Olympia will not come under full steam, but, nevertheless, she should make the run to New York in about 55 days from Manila. That she is to come to New York is nearly certain, as shown by the following response made by Secretary Long to the urgent message of invitation to Dewey from Mayor Van Wyck, of New York. It may be stated that this was sent before the notice was sent to Dewey that he might come home at once:

"NAVY DEPT. WASHINGTON, May 11. "Sir-I am in receipt of your telegram with regard to the return of Adm. Dewey, and expressing a desire New York. The time of his return has! not been fixed and the department has taken no other action than to authorze his return whenever the condition of the peace commission shall permit. Powder Building at Kings' Mills Completely Demolished-No Employes On the Place at the Time.

KING'S MILLS, O., May 13 .- With a terrific explosion that hurled timbers into the air, filled the atmosphere with flying debris and shook the country for six miles around, the pulverizing and glazing buildings of the King's smokeless powder plant at this place were completely demolished Friday morning at 6:30.

There were no employes in the plant at the time, but many were on their way for the day's work, and had the explosion occurred half an hour later, many lives would have been sacrificed. As it was, two employes were within 100 feet of the factory when the explosion took place. They were stunned by the awful concussion, but escaped told Maj. Gen. Otis that Aguirelieved of the obligation of remaining injury. Houses, in the vicinity were shaken almost from their foundations, not a whole window was left in the neighborhood, and other buildings of the great plant were damaged some-

The explosion originated in the glazing mill, near the river road, about 200 yards eart of the bridge, and was the result of a fire that can not be exexplained. It was an old frame structure, about ten feet square, and contained two barrels of smokeless powder. Another building, a little to the west, was destroyed by the resulting fire, and a third was badly shattered from the explosion. The buildings will be replaced within two days.

The cause of the explosion is unknown. The three men who were so close to the mills when the explosion came went on duty early and were supposed to start the machinery in the different buildings. They were the last employes at the works Thursday night, but are unable to give any cause. The loss is about $2,500.

500,000 FAMILIES RELY ON PE-RU-NA,

Mr. W. H. B. Williams, Columbus, O. W. H. B. Williams, publisher of The Farmers' Industrial Union, in a recent letter to Dr. Hartman says: "I have used Pe-ru-na as a family medicine for several years. I find it of especial use for myself. I have had several tedious spells with systematic catarrh and before using Pe-ru-na I had tried several other remedies with little or no success. But in Pe-ru-na I found a prompt and sure cure. I always keep the remedy which promptly relieves any attack of the same malady.

"My wife also uses Pe-ru-na. She finds it of especial use for severe spells, to which she is subject. We always keep it in the house as a family medicine. We think it an excellent remedy for the various ills to which children are subject, especially climatic diseases. Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio. for a free book on family medicine.

SYNOPSIS.

Master Ardick, just reached his majority and thrown upon his own resources, after Etating his case to one Houthwick, a shipmaster, is shipped as second mate on the Industry, bound for Havana. Mr. Tym, the supercargo, descries a sail. The strange vessel gives chase, but is disabled by the Industry's guns. In the fray Capt. Houthwick and one of the crew are killed, but the Industry is found to be little damaged. Sallinger , first mate, takes charge and puts into Sidmouth to secure a new mate Several days later, when well out to sea, an English merchantman is met, whose captain has a letter addressed to Jeremiah Hope, at Havana. The crew of the vessel tell strange tales of the buccaneer Morgan, who is sailing under the king's commission to take Panama. One night a little later, the English vessel having proceeded on her course, a bit of paper is slipped into Ardick's hand by one of the sailors. This is found to be a warning of a mutiny plot headed by Pradey, the new mate. Ardick consults Mr. Tym. They resolve to secure the mate, but Pradey, eavesdropping in the cabin, makes through the dorr and arouses the crew. Capt. Sellinger joins Ardick and Tym. The crew break through the now barricaded door, but are forced to retire, having lost seven of their number. Finding themselves now too short-handed to manage the boat. Pradey decides to scuttle and desert the vessel, taking his men off in the only available boat. The captain, supercargo and second mate soon discover their plight, but hastily constructing a raft bet away just before their vessel sinks. The next morning a Spaniard draws near them. The man in the rigging shouts: "If you would board us, take to your oars. Be speedy, or you will fall short." On board they are sent forward with thecrew, being told they wil be sold as slaves on reaching Panama. The ship's cock they find to be Mac Ivrach, "frae Clagvarloch," so friend. Four days later the Spaniard is overhauled by a buccaneer flying the English flag. The three Englishmen and Mac Ivrach plan to escape to the buccaneer on as I gripped the big brown hands. a rude raft. Sellinger, the last to attempt to leave the Spaniard, is disabled. Just after the others put off they see a figure dangling from the yard arm, whom they suppose is Capt. Sellinger. Hailing the buccaneer, our three friends find themselves in the hands of their old mate, Pradey He treats them kindly and offers to do them no harm if they wil but remain quiet concerning the mutiny he headed. The Black Eagle, Pradey's ship, comes to Chagre Cuba, which town they find Morgan has taken under the English flag. From her the Black Eagle with Morgan's fleet proceeds to Panama. The command consists of about 1,200 men Having landed, they march on to the city. The assault on the city is begun. Many of the buccaneers fali, hand by killing the villain.

At daybreak the trumpets were blown, and the companies assembled under their respective leaders. Breakfast was hastily eaten, no delays being made for cookery, but all taken cold, and shortly the word was given to march. A little before this we had learned that Morgan's plan was to proceed first to the governor's castle, making a stern show of warlike force on the way, and there Morgan himself would remain, keeping with him 50 men, and the rest were to scatter and plunder and ravage at will. Certain rules, however, were to be observed, one being that all must deposit their spoil in the hall of the castle, where it should remain till the final decision; bring their slaves to the castle, having | stay for questions?" a mind to sell them there, they could "Surely!" cried Mr. Tym, without do so, and such slaves should be guard ed and cared for till their disposal.

The sun was creeping up and the breeze had fallen when at last we eaught step and set forward down the chief street of the city. The drums were beating spiritedly and the trumpets sounded thrilling blasts, and with our soldierly array, the headpieces, cuirasses and musket barrels flashing in the sun, I thought we presented a fine and altogether awing spectacle. The place was deathly quiet. Every house was closed, and as far as we could see down the street not a person was in sight. Still we traveled along, and at last, just as I was wondering at the extent of this part of the city, the street ended, and we broke out into a considerable square, or plaza. Here the buildings were large and of a more pretentious sort than any we had yet seen. All were of stone, some of brown or reddish color, and some of common stone well set in red cement, but few were above three stories in height. The roofs of all were flat, and The captain hurried us up the main Mr. Tym, shaking his head. OF THE CONCLUSION OF OUR GREAT SURPRISE AND WHAT FOLLOWED AT THE HEELS OF IT.

Even Mr. Tym changed color, and for my part my legs grew weak and my heart thumped like a fulling hammer. "Why, friends, don't ye know me? Do ye take me for a ghost?"

It was the same old hearty, searough voice that we knew so well. It was no spirit, but the man's mortal

Mr. Tym was the first to pull himself together. He rushed forward, and with a little cry of gladness seized Sellinger by both hands and danced the strong skipper about. I was next, and could scarce keep back the tears Even Mac Ivrach grinned like a merryandrew and cut one step of a caper as he took his turn.

"But, man," cried Mr. Tym, as we at last released the skipper and stood delightedly about him, "how can this be? Did we not see you hanged? Aye, dangling your length from the yardarm of the Pilanca? Why, we made out the very white shirt you have on-the boatswain, Pedillo. Marry, I never thought of your taking him for me! You see the old governor conceived the notion that the fellow was more responsible than anybody else for our little break, and so danced him up to the yard. I believe one of the priests gave him a shirt, or frock, to be turned off in, and so that was where you got your white tog. Aye, aye, I understand the thing now."

And so, of course, did we, and it was simple enough, to be sure.

He asked a question or two in turn, which we answered, and then I went on to inquire how the Spaniards used him after our escape.

I was clapped in the brig. When the ship reached Chagre I was set upon the midships of a mule and brought here. Since then I have lived in the house of -Faith! but that reminds me. He turned, and set off up the same street he had emerged from. I had, of the Virgin, for they have come to decourse, noticed his dress and other appearance, ere this, and found that he looked and was habited as formerly. He was armed now, however, being girded with a belt, to which was hung a short hook pistol and a Spanish hanger. We fetched up at a high stone wall, which I perceived must set off a considerable estate. A little way along this wall was a strong iron gate, the top defended by sharp spikes. The captain plucked a key out of his pocket, with which he unlocked this gate, and, urging us all in before him, hastily locked it again. I now perceived that we were in an extensive garden, fruit and shade trees standing thickly about and the walks bordered with flowers. A COUNT'S VISION.

Remarkable Instance of Telegraphic Perception-Foretelling a Tragedy.

I can vouch for the truth of the folowing interesting case of clairvoyance: On August 12 a young man named Livio Cibrario, belonging to one of the most ancient families of Turin, while attempting to climb the peak of Rocciamelone, in the Maritime Alps, lost his way, and on the following morning a search party found his body, terribly crushed and bruised, at the bottom of a deep crevasse.

Count Cibrario, the unfortunate young man's father, who was at Turin, and knew nothing of his son's expedition to the Rocciamelone, on the night of the accident aroused the rest of the family, announcing with tears that Livio was dead. He had seen him distinetly, he said, blood flowing from his battered head, and had heard these words spoken in a voice of terrible an-

"Father, I slipped down a precipice and broke my head, and I am dead quite dead."

The other members of the family tried in vain to persuade the poor count that the ghastly vision was nothing but a nightmare, and the bereaved father continued in a state of anxiety bordering upon distraction till the morning, when the official confirmation of the terrible accident reached him.

This case of telepathy, or whatever name may be given to similar phenomena, is considered all the more remarkable as Count Cibrario is a very never suffered from disorders of the nervous system or dabbled in spiritism.-Rome Cor. London Mail.

It is not probable that the following from the letter of an American in the early '50s is entirely authentic: "At sunset we reached Gaeta. Among the stories of the place is one to the effect that the pope and the king of Naples, who had come to visit him. in exile, went on board an American man-of-war. The commander welcomed them in these terms: 'Pope, how are you? King, how d'ye do? Here Lieut. Jones, you speak French, parleyvous with the pope while king and I go down and take a drink. King, come on."-Chicago Chronicle.

Why They All Bowed.

At an ancient church at Valsbol, in Russia, it has been customary for the congregation to turn to a blank wall and bow reverently before leaving the church. Why they did this nobody knew except that their forefathers had done so, and had handed down the custom. In making some repairs recently the origin of the custom was dicovered, for beneath many layers of whitewash and paint a picture was found of the Virgin Mary, which must have stood out brilliantly on the wall five or six centuries ago.

Mother's advice is worth more than the advice of any other woman to the daughter who is perplexed by the problems of phyiscal health and comfort. There's no need therefore to "write to a woman," who is a stranger.

There may, however, be need for a physician's advice to supplement the advice of the mother. In such a case the offer of free consultation by letter, made by Dr. Pierce, opens the way to health, and at the same time avoids the unpleasant questionings, the repulsive examinations and offensive local treatments which less experienced physicians often

Any sick or ailing woman is invited to write to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, in the strictest privacy. Each letter is held as a sacred confidence and its answer is sent in a plain envelope, bearing no printing upon it.

Do not be misled by advertisements offering "medical advice," which are published by those who not being physicians are not qualified to give such advice. Any physician or doctor who has a legal and professional right to the title will publicly claim that title. Those who offer "medical advice" and invite you to "write to a woman" do not claim that the woman is a doctor. The "medical advice" of an unprofessional woman is just as dangerous as the "medical advice" of an unprofessional man. In more than thirty years Dr. Pierce and his staff of nearly a score of medical specialists, have successfully treated over half a million women. You can write without fear as without fee to Dr. R. He Shot Six Persons, and Wife, Uncle and Grandmother Were Killed.

His Wound May Prove Fatal-When the Murderer Attacked His Wife She Was Sitting Up With the Remains of Her Mother.

HOWARD CITY, Mich., May 12 .- Jos Harvey Wednesday night killed hi wife, his uncle, Robert Pierson, and his grandmother, and mortally wounded his three months' old child and his father-in-law, John Logenslayer, and finally shot himself, inflicting a wound which is expected to prove fatal.

Harvey's uncle and grandmother live a mile north of town. The murderer went there Wednesday evening. He asserts that Pierson, his uncle, was quarreling with his grandmother, and that he interfered; that whereupon Pierson stabbed and killed the old lady, aged 70, and that he (Harvey) retailated by shooting his uncle. After shooting Pierson, Harvey stabbed him three times.

Harvey then returned to his home, two miles southwest of town. Arriving there he shot his wife twice, killing her. He then fired at his threemenths-old baby, the ball going into ts arm. Next Harvey entered his tather-in-law's room and shot him twice, inflicting, however, no fatal injury. He then turned the revolver on himself, shooting himself in the neck. Harvey's wife when attacked, was sitting up with the remains of her mother, who died Wednesday.

The Pierson home presents a horrible appearance. Pierson's body was found in a chair and that of the old lady on the floor clad only in night dress. There are signs of a desperate struggle between Harvey and his grandmother, but no indication of a fight between the two men.

Harvey himself Thursday informed the sheriff of the murders at Pierson's house. He was then arrested for murdering his wife. He has nothing to say about the tragedies at his own home. There are strong threats of

It transpires that Harvey, on reaching the home of his late mother-in-law, said nothing about his terrible acts at Pierson's house. He offered to sit up by the corpse of his wife's mother. Accordingly, the others retired. It was 4 o'clock Thursday morning when Harvey went to his wife's room and killed her, and attempted to slay his baby and his father-in-law. He also fired at Miss Labard, a teacher who boarded in the house, but without effect. Harvey's wound is serious, but he is certain to recover. He was employed in a furniture factory and is only 20 years of age. The cause of his terrible act has not been determined.

FREIGHT HANDLERS' STRIKE

The Situation at Buffalo Assuming a Serious Aspect-! hey Demand An Increase of Wages.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 12. - The strike among the members of the Freight Handlers union at this port is gradually assuming a serious aspect. There are about 2,000 of those men pledged not to work for any contractor and many of these men are now on a strike. Originally a few of them went out in sympathy with the grain shovelers and Thursday night it was believed that in ease the scoopers gain their point they will remain out until their difficulties have been satisfactorily settled.

At the Lehigh Valley docks the company called in a lot of yardmen and other employes to take the place of the strikers. At the Central, Erie and other big docks the work was practically at a standstill, the few freight handlers who were at work being nonunion men.

The freight handlers demand an increase of wages from 25 cents an hour, the present rate, to 30 cents an hour for working outside of the freight houses, and 20 an hour for inside work. They also ask for the abolition of the contract system.

FAILED TO FLAG THE TRAIN.

A Collision on the Philadeiphia & Reading Road-Many Persons Were Killed and Injured.

READING, Pa., May 13.-A collision of passenger trains occurred on the Philadelphia & Reading railroad at Exeter, about six miles south of this city Friday night and a great number of people were killed and injured. There is no telegraph office at Exeter and details therefore are difficult to obtain at this writing. The number killed is variously stated to be from 15 to 25. Fully 50 others are injured.

The regular express train from Pottsville for Philadelphia is connected at the station in Reading with a train from Harrisburg, which was crowded with excursionists, who had been to the state capital to witness the ceremonies in connection with the unveiling of the Hartranft monument.

Many of the Harrisburg passengers at Reading went aboard the Philadelphia express, but it being found that all could not be accommodated it was decided to send an extra train to Philadelphia to run as the second section of the express. The extra train left 20 minutes later than the express. A: Exeter the express stopped for orders and while standing still the extra train crashed into it while moving at great speed.

Three of the rear cars of the express were telescoped and the first car of the extra train was also wrecked. The passengers in these cars were terribly mangled, many being killed outright, while others had limbs and bodies maimea. Word was at once sent to Reading and a special train with physicians and nurses was sent to the scene as quickly as it could possibly be put in readiness.

Exeter is a flag station and has no telephone communication. It is stated that the passengers on the second train were mostly from Morristown, and that several from the borough were killed and many injured.

United States Senator Boies Penrose and Gen. E. Burd Grubb were passengers on the wrecked train. The rear end of the car in which they were riding was crushed and the two gentlemen, though badly shaken up, were uninjured. Senator Penrose did not know how many of the passengers of the rear cars were killed or injured, but said when the train left the scene those needing attention were being cared for by physicians and residents of the neighborhood. He said he learned that several were killed and many badly injured, but as to the number he could not say. A few of those whose injuries were slight came on the train to Philadelphia, but the train left soon after the accident and the more seriously injured were left at the scene and were to be sent to Reading.

The second relief train left Exeter at 2:50 a. m. Saturday. It brought to Reading 20 additional bodies. The names are not yet known. Most of the seriously injured were brought here on the first relief train. The rest of the injured were taken to Potts. town and Morristown.

The northbound track has been cleared and the first train through to this city from Philadelphia was the Buffalo express which left Philadelphia at

EX-GOV. R. P. FLOWER DEAD.

He Became Ill in the Eastport Country Club, Eastport, L. I., and Died Within a Few Hours of Heart Failure.

NEW YOLK, May 13.-Former Gov. Roswell P. Flower died Friday night at 10:30 at the Eastport Country club, at Eastport, L. I. Mr. Flower was taken ill early in the day with a severe attack of acute indigestion. In the afternoon symptoms of heart failure supervened and he grew steadily worse until the time of his death. The attack of heart failure was accompanied by a fainting spell and Mr. Flower's family in New York city were quickly notified. Mrs. Flower and the former governor's nephew, Frederick S. Flower, accompanied by Dr. Thomas H. Allen, Mr. Flower's physician, left at once on a special train for Eastport. When they arrived there Thursday night a woman committed Mr. Flower had somewhat recovered but Friday night the attack of heart failure was marked and Mr. Flower became unconscious an hour or more before his death.

THE FILIPINOS AGAIN ROUTED

Gen. Lawton Attacked the Rebels Pehind Strong Fortifications at San Ildfonso and Drove Them Out.

NEW YORK, May 13 .-- A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says. The Filipino forces which were entrenched behind strong fortifications at San Ildfonso, north of Balinag, were driven from their position by Gen. Lawton. One American was wounded.

Mme. Adelina Patti's affection for her parrots is well known. She had one favorite bird, "Cooky," who always had to have a light left burning in his room at night, as he had a curious trick of falling off his perch when asleep. He could not see in the dark and consequently was unable to find his way back on to his perch. Hence he was accommodated with a night light.

Aigrettes with pear-shaped pearls suspended from the tips and fillets with heart-shaped centers studded with diamonds are among the latest designs.

To the Editor-I wish to express my heartelt thanks to the following named persons for the assistance rendered me in the death of my husband: Officers Brown, Loftus and of my husband: Officers Brown, Loftus and O'Donnell, who helped get the carriages in line at the funeral; John Gorman, who watched the corpse; Adolph Simmon, of Simmon & Norrby, who was especially noticeable while singing "All Coons Look Alike to Me" at the wake, and to Nick Wentz, for serving lunch to the mourners during their bereavement. Those men shall never be forgotten for their kindness. Mrs. Sarah Ann Wells, nee Murphy.—Penny Press.

What "Kalsomines" Are.

"Kalsomines" are cheap temporary preparations manufactured from chalks, clays, whiting, etc., and are stuck on the walls with decaying animal glue. They bear no comparison with Alabastine, which is a cecomparison with Alabastine, which is a cement that goes through a process of setting, and hardens with age. Consumers, in buying Alabastine, should see that the goods are in packages and properly labeled. Nothing else is "just as good" as Alabastine. The claims of new imitations are absurd on their face. They cannot offer the test of time for durability. "A few handfuls of rice!" echoed her Least S Foot Powder, which is declared, in the decision of the Court, an imitation and infringement of "Foot—Ease," the powder for tired, aching feet to shake in your shoes, now so largely advertised and sold all over the country. Allen S. Olmsted, of Le Roy, N. Y., is the owner of the trade-mark "Foot—Ease" and he is the first individual who Ease," and he is the first individual who ever advertised a foot powder extensively. He will send a sample Free to any one who writes him for it. The decision in this case upholds his trade-mark and renders all par-ties liable who fraudulently attempt to profit by the extensive "Foot-Ease" advertising, in placing upon the market a spurious and similar appearing preparation, labeled and put up in envelopes and boxes like Foot—Ease. Similar suits will be brought against others who are now infringing on the Foot-Ease trade-mark and common law rights.

WINCHESTER REPEATING ARMS CO.,

S. S. S. GOES

Promptly Reaches the Seat In every test made S. S. S. easily demonstrates its superiority over other blood remedies. It matters not how obof all Blood Diseases and stinate the case, nor what other treatment or remedies have failed, S. S. S. Everyone who has had experience with blood diseases knows that there are no ailments or troubles so obstinate and difficult to cure. Very few remedies claim to cure such real, deep-seated blood diseases as S. S. S. cures, and none can offer such incontrovertible evidence of merit. S S. S. is not merely a tonic—it is a cure! It goes down to the very seat of all blood diseases, and gets at the foundation of the very worst cases, and routs the poison from the system. It does not, like other remedies, dry up the poison and hide it from view temporarily, only to break forth again more violently than ever; S. S. S. forces out every trace of taint, and rids the system of it forever.

Mrs. T. W. Lee, Montgomery, Ala., writes: "Some years ago I was inoculated with poison by a nurse who infected my babe with blood taint. I was covered with sores and ulcers from head to foot, and in my great extremity I prayed to die. Several prominent physicians treated me, but all to no purpose. The mercury and potash which they gave me seemed to add fuel to the awful flame which was devouring me. I was advised by friends who had seen wonderful cures made by it, to try Swift's Specific. I improved from the start, as the medicine seemed to go direct to the cause of the trouble and force the poison out. Twenty bottles cured me completely." Swift's Specific-
